Dasara: Tourist vehicles from other States exempted from entry tax

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BCT)- The Karnataka State Transport Department has announced that tourist vehicles from other States heading to Mysuru for Dasara festival will be exempt from paying permit tax or entry tax.

This exemption, which began on Oct. 4, will remain in effect until the end of festivities on Oct. 12.

According to the official notification, the waiver applies only to tourist vehicles entering Mysuru and the nearby Srirangapatna taluk of Mandya district. The tax exemption aims to boost tourist arrivals during the event.

The exemption is available to vehicles registered outside Karnataka that are operating under special permits. The Transport Department clarified that the waiver is in the public interest and introduced under the Motor Vehicles Taxation Act, 1957.

Apart from the tourist attractions and splendid illumination in Mysuru city, Srirangapatna, located near Mysuru, is home to popular tourist spots like Brindavan Gardens and Krishna Raja Sagar (KRS) Dam, both of which draw more visitors during Dasara.

Only vehicles travelling to Mysuru and Srirangapatna during this period will benefit from the tax break, provided they secure the necessary special permits.

Mysuru, Oct.10 (VNS) - The two-day State-level Shuttle Badminton Tournament for under-19 boys and girls jointly organised by Department of Public Instructions and Sri Ramakrishna Vidyashala will be held from Oct. 15 at the Vidyashala premises in Yadavagiri here.

Ramesh and Deputy Director (PU) M. Mariswamy will be the chief guests for the inaugural event.

Shuttlers from 33 districts will be taking part in the event for which boarding and lodging facilities will be provided by the organisers. While the tournament will be held at Manasagangothri indoor stadium for boys, the matches for girls will be held at Maharaja's College indoor stadium. EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

INCOMPARABLE COUPLE: Kakasura, the demon in the form of a crow, was chased by the Brahmastra, and he ran through all the worlds, but there was no one to offer him refuge. Finally, exhausted and having run out of all options, he fell at Rama's feet, said V.S. Karunakarachariar in a discourse. Rama spared his life. The crow then said, "kAkaha." 'kA' means 'who,' when we are referring to feminine gender. Kaha means 'who' in masculine gender. What Kakasura meant was — "Who can be like Her (Sita)? And Who can be like Him (Rama)?" That is why crows caw and make the sound 'kAkaha.' The crow could see that Rama and Sita were an incomparable couple and the bird said it out loudly.

The Kakasura episode is very important, because it shows us the value of surrender. When Hanuman meets Sita in Lanka, She narrates the Kakasura episode to him, which took place when Rama and Sita were in Chitrakuta. Kakasura had committed a sin by pecking at Her breast and hurting Her. Normally, such a sin would have been punished with death. But because he fell at Rama's feet, the Lord forgave him. But the rule was that once the Brahmastra was put into use, it could not rest until it had hit its target. So, Rama mitigated the punishment intended for the crow, and made the arrow blind the crow in one eye. The story also shows that if we incur the Lord's wrath, none can save us.— In The Hindu

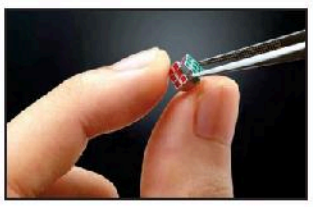
Smallest Rubik's Cube is just 0.19 inches wide



Tokyo: Japanese toymaker MegaHouse recently unveiled the world's smallest Rubik's Cube, an aluminium cube measuring only 0.19 inches per side and weighing just 0.33 grams, but with a price tag of 5,320 dollars.

To celebrate the 50th anniversary of the original Rubik's Cube invented by Hungarian sculptor Erno Rubik, Japanese toymaker MegaHouse set out to create the world's smallest Rubik's Cube. The company came up with the idea for the project about four years ago and started working on it in 2022. Although making a metal square only 0.5 cm in width doesn't seem that difficult in this day and age, making a functional Rubik's Cube with rotating faces was a big challenge. MegaHouse had to team up with a precision-cutting company to ensure that all the tiny parts worked as intended.

This wonder of engineering has already been made available for pre-order for the head-spinning price of 777,777 yen ($5,320), with first orders expected to be shipped in April of next year.

Artwork mistaken for litter rescued from trash bin

Amsterdam: A work of art was rescued from the trash at a Dutch museum after being mistaken for what it depicts: a pair of abandoned beer cans.

'All The Good Times We Spent Together,' a 1988 piece by French artist Alexandre Lavet, appears at first glance to be a pair of empty beer cans abandoned on the floor.

The museum said Lavet's piece was on display in the facility's glass elevator shaft, where they were mistaken for actual litter by an elevator technician, who threw it out. Museum employees who noticed the artwork was missing launched a search and managed to rescue the intact cans from a trash bin that was about to be thrown out.

MGP's monthly meeting to discuss MUDA scams

Mysuru, Oct. 10- While CM Siddaramaiah has come under attack for MUDA's 50:50 site distribution scam, many others are also under the radar.

In a sort of development, the Government has appointed a One-Man Commission (retired High Court Judge P.N. Desai) but it has not given any confidence to the people of any positive result out of it. The Commission has not established any office in Mysuru and the public has no easy access.

Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) had urged for a CBI inquiry soon after the scam came to the national agenda. MGP also demanded that the authorities should look into the now forgotten Vijay Bhaskar Report and the misuse of CA sites dealt with therein.

So far only a few activists have taken active part in holding MUDA accountable. MGP's online signature campaign did not get even 1,500 participants.

To discuss what should be done to get larger involvement of the public, MGP has invited activists like former MUDA employee Nataraj, advocate Arunkumar, who has already filed a PIL in local Court, RTI activist Snehamayi Krishna, Thulasidharan, etc. Those who know of land grabbing issues are invited to participate.

Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa has been invited to attend the meeting to be held on Oct. 13 (Sunday) at MGP office, #6/1, Vivekananda Road, Yadavagiri, Mysuru, at 4 pm. For more information, contact MGP on Ph: 0821-2515150.

Dasara crowd control: Kudos to Mysuru Police

Sir,

Hats off to the Mysuru Traffic Police for their exemplary control and monitoring of the Dasara crowd this year. A substantial contingent of officers has been deployed for traffic regulation, providing exceptional service to the public. Even in the rain, traffic cops are seen managing the flow while holding umbrellas. This year marks a historic first for Mysuru Dasara, showcasing such a large and active Police presence.

The movement of vehicles at all circles and junctions is carefully monitored and synchronised, minimising disruptions for both traffic and pedestrians.

However, despite the Police's best efforts, some two-wheelers and three-wheelers continue to violate directives, causing minor traffic snarls.

Ratan Tata passes away at 86

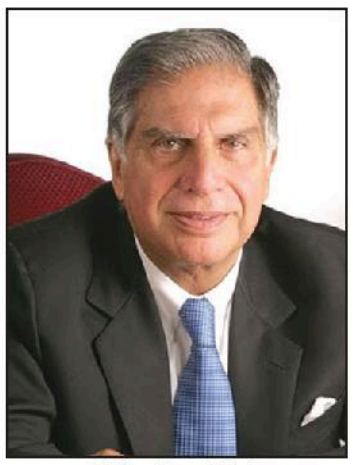
Mumbai, Oct. 10 (Agencies)- Ratan Naval Tata, Chairman emeritus of one of India's biggest salt-to-software conglomerates Tata Sons, passed away at 86 in Mumbai's Breach Candy Hospital. Just on Monday, the industrialist in a social media post dismissed speculation about his health and said he was undergoing routine medical investigations due to his age.

In 2008, he received the Padma Vibhushan, the second-highest civilian honour in India, after receiving the Padma Bhushan, the third-highest civilian honour in 2000.

In a late-night statement on Wednesday, N. Chandrasekaran, Chairman of Tata Sons, announced the death of Ratan Tata, hailing the industrialist's unwavering commitment to excellence, integrity and innovation.

"It is with a profound sense of loss that we bid farewell to Ratan Naval Tata, a truly uncommon leader whose immeasurable contributions have shaped not only the Tata Group but also the very fabric of our nation," said Chandrasekaran.

As news broke, tributes poured in from the industry and beyond. Prime Minister Narendra Modi led the tributes, hailing the industrialist as a compassionate soul and an extraordinary human being.



Ratan Naval Tata

"Ratan Tata Ji was a visionary business leader, a compassionate soul and an extraordinary human being. He provided stable leadership to one of India's oldest and most prestigious business houses. At the same time, his contribution went far beyond the boardroom. He endeared himself to several people thanks to his humility, kindness and an unwavering commitment to making our society better," the Prime Minister posted on X in a series of tweets along with pictures.

State mourning

The Maharashtra Government has declared a day of mourning in the State to pay tributes to Ratan Tata, the Chief Minister's Office said. A statement quoting Chief Minister Eknath Shinde said the National Tricolour on Government offices in Maharashtra will be flown at half-mast on Oct. 10 as a sign of mourning.

Ratan Tata's mortal remains will be kept at the National Centre for Performing Arts (NCPA) in south Mumbai from 10 am to 4 pm and his last rites will be performed in the Worli area of Mumbai later in the day with full State honours.

Union Home Minister Amit Shah will attend the last rites.

Early life

Ratan Tata joined Tata in 1961, where he worked on the shop floor of Tata Steel. He later succeeded J.R.D. Tata as Chairman of Tata Sons upon the latter's retirement in 1991. Under his tenure, the Tata Group acquired Tetley, Jaguar Land Rover and Corus, in an attempt to turn Tata from a largely India-centric group into a global business.

Born in 1937, Ratan Tata was raised by his grandmother Navajbai Tata, after his parents separated in 1948. He studied architecture at Cornell University and followed it up with a management course at Harvard.

By his own account, the bachelor industrialist came close to getting married on four occasions. He once admitted that he fell in love while working in Los Angeles. But because of the ongoing 1962 Indo-China War, the girl's parents refused to let her move to India.

He also admitted to feeling lonely at times. "There are many times that I feel lonely about not having a wife or a family and sometimes I long for it. Sometimes I enjoy the freedom of not having to worry about the feelings of someone else or the concerns of someone else. On other times, it does get a little lonely," he had said.

Former actor Simi Garewal shared a heartfelt note about bidding farewell to her friend Ratan. Simi Garewal once revealed that she briefly dated Ratan Tata, though she later married someone else. Despite that, the two remained close friends. "They say you have gone... It's too hard to bear your loss..too hard... Farewell my friend," she wrote on X.

A.R. Rahman plays a maverick

Musical Nite of widely acclaimed musician draws huge crowd on the fourth day of Yuva Dasara

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (MK&BS)- Internationally acclaimed music composer A.R. Rahman enthralled the music lovers to the hilt, casting a magical spell on the fourth day of Yuva Dasara at the open grounds near Uttanahalli Outer Ring Road (ORR) junction in the city yesterday evening.

A maverick musician that he is, Rahman didn't disappoint the youthful crowd, who were waiting to get lost in the din. For three hours, the spotlight was on Rahman, who with his troupe of singers, belted out a medley of hit numbers from the trendsetting films like Slumdog Millionaire, Kadhalan, Dil Se, Swades to name a few. Fully clad in black, Rahman, who hit the stage with a bang, sang the hit song Jai Ho... from Slumdog Millionaire, with the audience joining him in chorus. Mukkala Muqabla... the foot tapping song from Kadhalan, that has become an inseparable part of dance shows, was also recited by Rahman along with singer Shwetha, and the audience had no option than shaking their legs, trying to imitate Prabhudeva, like in the flick.

Dil Se Re... the title song of Dil Se and Ye Jo Des Hai Tera... from Swades were the other songs composed by Rahman himself, that filled the air.

Noted playback singer Vijay Prakash, who was earlier in the troupe of Rahman, sang the Hindi version of his maiden song of the career — Rama Nanna Manadalli, Rama Ninna Manadali and the title song of 'Roja,' Roja Jaaneman... both in Hindi and Kannada versions.

Singer Rakshita Suresh, the Mysurean, sang the song Kirunage Kirunage... from the film 'PS-2,' another singer Shwetha recited the song Jiya Jale... from 'Dil Se,' singer Mohit Chauhan sang Masakali song from 'Delhi 6.'

Mysurean Vijay Prakash: Singer Vijay Prakash, also a native of Mysuru, became emotional, recalling his association with Rahman, with whom he has staged many live concerts.

"However, it is my good fortune that I have been performing along with Rahman sir at the land, where I was born and brought up," said Vijay Prakash.

Earlier, renowned drummer Sivamani entertained the gathering for about 10 minutes, with his innate skill on sticks, to the huge applause of the gathering.

Fire mishap: Even as the concert was on, fire broke out on the right side of the stage, but Fire & Emergency Services personnel, along with the help of Cops, were quick to douse the flames.

Large crowd: A sea of crowd had descended on the ground, to soak in the rain of music from the blessed musician Rahman. The vehicles had been parked up to a distance of 3-km on the Outer Ring Road and the Police who had been deployed to facilitate parking arrangements from 5 pm itself, had a tough time in handling the task. The seating arrangements made in various galleries for VVIP, VIP, Gold Card and Diamond Card holders were also full, with some of them forced to catch the action on their foot, throughout the concert.

A piece of History gleaned from an Eye Hospital in Kodagu

Yesterday I travelled to Kushalnagar in Kodagu to see a friend in an eye hospital, "Lopamudra Eye Care," who was undergoing a procedure for cataract. While in the waiting area, I noticed a number of framed certificates, citations, testimonials and photographs about the doctor. Being a private, personal hospital, such displays are expected and understandable.

However, what interested me was a couple of framed displays that seemed unique and modestly appropriate for a doctor who is a native Kodava and the hospital is in Kodagu.

I took the photographs of some of these displays to study them later. There was a photograph of a native Kodava of the early 20th century in his ethnic ceremonial attire (see picture). He is the grandfather of Dr. M.M. Ponnappa of Lopamudra Eye Care. He was honoured by the British Masters of the Colonial days with the title Rao Bahadur. So, he is Rao Bahadur Mukkatira Aiyappa. Could be, his grandson, this doctor Dr. M.M. Ponnappa, is so proud of his grandfather, he chose to honour his memory by hanging his photograph in the front office area.

And, again most appropriately, the legend of this legendary coffee planter and a philanthropist of those days (who had, no doubt, cultivated the company of the British Officers in Kodagu) as written in a newspaper was also displayed. The text details about the great gifts of this Kodava man. Curiously the news must have originated from Karachi (now in Pakistan) and taken from the newspaper 'The Madras Mail' (which was published by the British from Madras, now Chennai).

Reading its contents I was thrilled. Let me reproduce it:

The Madras Mail
Pluck Office, Karachi

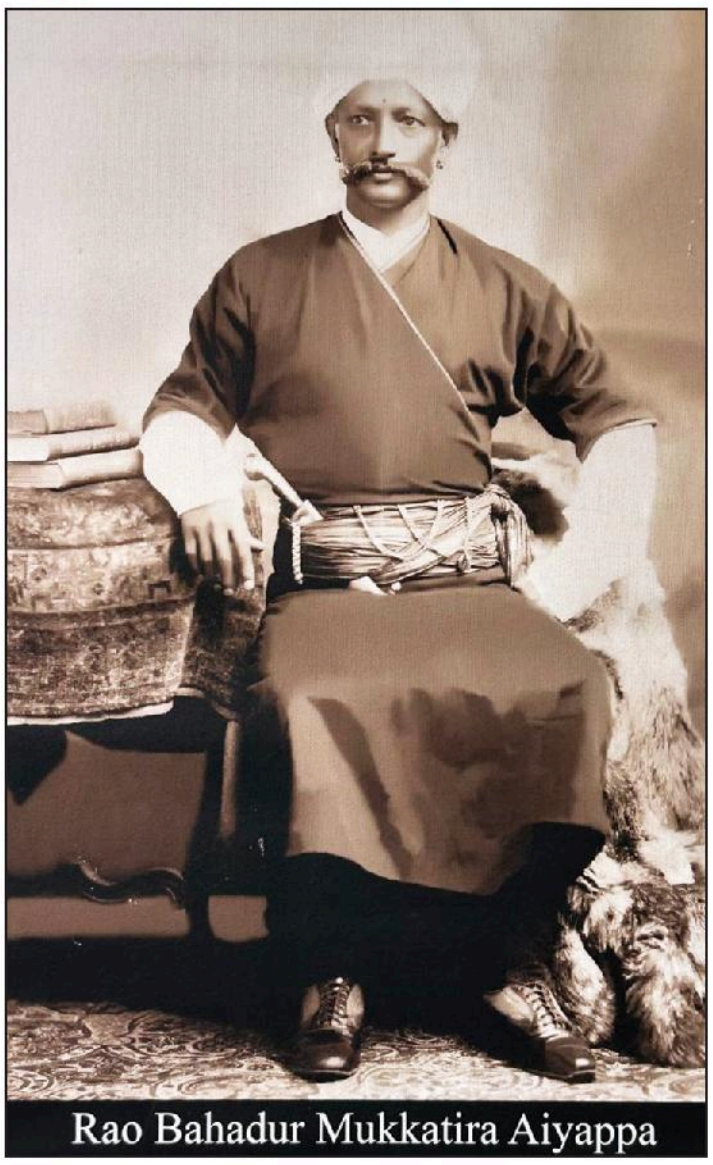
M. Mukkatira Iyappah
Devanageri Virarajendrapet

Virarajendrapet is now embellished with a clock tower, erected in front of the post office.

The foundation stone of the building was laid by Sir Hugh Daly, the Chief Commissioner of Coorg on 5th February, 1914, when he visited the town, during his tour in Coorg. It is the gift of Mr. Mukkatira Iyappah, a successful coffee planter in commemoration of the coronation of the King-Emperor at Delhi. It has already proven to be a boon to the public.

Mr. R.K Ellis, I.C.S., the District Magistrate of Coorg, performed the opening ceremony on the 16th of January and handed over the building to Virarajendrapet municipality.

Mr. Mukkatira Iyappah has also gifted the outpatient block of the civil hospital of Gonikoppal and an inspection bungalow of Fraserpet (now Kushalnagara) which has immensely benefited the people and district administration of Coorg.



Rao Bahadur Mukkatira Aiyappa

Those who visit Virajpet in South Kodagu could not miss to see the famous Clock Tower at the junction of three roads in the busy downtown area built in red-brick. By the way, history records the location of the Clock Tower was selected (in 1914) for the reason that it was the place where General Abercromby, the General who marched with his troops from Malabar via Kodagu (to reinforce the British and allied forces fighting Tipu Sultan in May 1799 at Srirangapatna), met the Maharaja of Kodagu Virarajendra Wadeyar and signed a peace treaty. The Kodagu Raja founded the city Virarajendrapet to commemorate the occasion.

Be that as it may, the Clock Tower was a gift of Mr. Mukkatira Iyappah (Aiyappa) in commemoration of the coronation of the King-Emperor at Delhi. The opening ceremony of the Clock Tower was held on 16th January (1915), just one year after its foundation was laid.

Iyappah had also gifted an Outpatient Block of Government Hospital at Gonikoppal and an Inspection Bungalow of then Fraserpet, now Kushalnagar.

It is said, what one gives often goes round and round and comes back multi-fold to the giver — or to his progeny. The same seems to have happened to Dr. M.M. Ponnappa and his brother Dr. M.M. Amrit Nanaiah, who is running the Lopamudra Medical Centre in Gonikoppal.

It is inscrutable that both these brothers are today successfully running their hospitals, one in Gonikoppal and another in Kushalnagar, the towns where their grandfather Aiyappa had generously built two valuable facilities for the good of the public. Vedic values and Sanatana Dharma are seen working in a mysteriously subtle way as reward for Mukkatira Aiyappa's selfless service to his fellow men. Let it be.

But as I scanned the wall, I noticed two boards with closely written text which read like pedagogy and a lesson in morals. Let me produce them here for the benefit of those who are on the path of virtuous and even spiritual life:

Keep it simple

Beware of the person who has nothing to lose.

Don't burn bridges. You'll be surprised how many times you have to cross the same river.

Live your life so that your epitaph could read, No Regrets.

Never waste an opportunity to tell someone you love them. Remember no one makes it alone. Have a grateful heart and be quick to acknowledge those who helped you.

Visit friends and relatives when they are in hospital; you need only stay a few minutes. (Well, I guess I have followed this advice by visiting this hospital !)

Forgive quickly. Life is short.

Keep a note pad and pencil on your bed-side table. Million dollar ideas sometimes strike at 3 am (I agree, I do follow this even to this night!).

Send your loved ones flowers. Think of a reason later.

Count your blessings.

Wave at the children on a school bus.

Remember that 80 percent of the success in any job is based on your ability to deal with people.

Don't expect life to be fair...

Have a firm handshake.

Look people in the eye.

Keep Secrets.

Never give up on anybody. Miracles happen everyday.

Avoid sarcastic remarks.

Choose your life's mate carefully. From this one decision will come 90 percent of all your happiness or misery.

When playing games with children, let them win.

Be romantic. Become the most positive and enthusiastic person you know.

Don't allow the phone to interrupt important moments. It's there for our convenience, not the caller's.

Be a good loser for your loved ones. Be a good winner of Hearts.

When someone hugs you, let them be the first to let go.

Be modest. A lot was accomplished before you were born.

And finally, a board with some information from the Indian Penal Code (IPC) with penal sections. I'm sure Dr. Javeed Nayeem, our weekly columnist, Over a Cup of Evening Tea, who was the President of MAHAN, an Association of Doctors and Hospitals, to protect themselves from the vandals, will love this.

Yes, protection to doctors and hospitals from people who attack them for different reasons, are there in the law books. But, in our too liberal a Democracy these laws are more often subverted, sabotaged and violated with impunity rather than enforced. Hence, this reminder of IPC to the patients. Examples are many, but the recent one is in the rape and murder of a duty doctor at the R G Kar Medical College and Hospital in Kolkata, West Bengal.

Tennis: Lakshmiprabha stuns Soha in opener

Lakshmiprabha Arunkumar in action at the ITF Women's World Tennis Tour event in Mysuru on Wednesday.

Mysuru, Oct. 10- Qualifier Lakshmiprabha Arunkumar from Tamil Nadu showcased her immense talent with a stunning win over sixth-seeded Soha Sadiq of Karnataka in the first round of the $15,000 ITF Mysuru Open - Women's World Tour at Mysuru Tennis Club, here yesterday.

The 19-year-old, handpicked by the Tamil Nadu Tennis Association into their 'Next Level' programme, outplayed her seasoned rival 6-2, 6-2 to set up a second-round meeting with fellow Indian Yashaswini Panwar.

It was also curtains for another Karnataka player, Kashvi Sunil. The 15-year-old qualifier had her chances but let an error-prone fourth seed, Riya Bhatia, off the hook. Riya, who kept complaining about a few line calls and even called the ITF supervisor on court after being handed a code violation, won 6-3, 7-5.

However, wildcard entrant Harshini N. Nagaraj from Bengaluru more than made up for the twin setbacks. The 17-year-old, playing her maiden ITF women's event, did a Houdini act against qualifier Aditi Rawat.

Down 1-5 in the decider, the gritty Harshini saved two match points and rallied in splendid fashion against a tiring rival in energy-sapping heat for a 6-4, 4-6, 7-5 victory in two hours and 25 minutes. Showing maturity that belies her age, the Bengaluru teenager began in confident fashion against Aditi, engaging her in long rallies and forcing her opponent into errors. After taking the opening set, she erred at crucial junctures in the second set that Aditi capitalised on.

Aditi pocketed the second set and took a runaway lead in the decider. But Harshini held her nerve and staged a valiant fight back, reeling off six games in a row to make it a memorable debut. She takes on giant-killer Smriti Bhasin in the second round.

RESULTS

Singles: Pooja Ingale bt Abhaya Vemuri 6-4, 6-3; Tanisha Kashyap bt Sejal Gopal Bhutada 6-4, 6-1; Yashaswini Panwar bt Apurva Vemuri 7-5, 6-2; Lakshmiprabha Arunkumar bt 6-Soha Sadiq 6-2, 6-2; Kaili Demi Teso (Jpn) bt Saumya Vig 6-1, 6-1; Polina Kaibekova (Rus) bt Kashish Bhatia 6-0, 2-6, 7-5; 4-Riya Bhatia bt Kashvi Sunil 6-3, 7-5; Harshini N Nagaraj bt Aditi Rawat 6-4, 4-6, 7-5; Doubles: Smriti Bhasin/ Elena Jamshidi (Den) bt Sonal Patil/ Prisha Vyas (USA) 6-4, 6-4; Diva Bhatia/ Sai Samhitha bt Naomi Hagi (HK)/ Kaili Demi Teso (Jpn) 4-6, 6-3, 10-4; 2-Humera Baharmus/ Pooja Ingale bt Yashaswini Panwar/ Vanshita Pathania 7-6 (10-8), 6-4.

MUDA 50:50 site scam

Accused 3, 4 appear before Lokayukta

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BLU&BCT)- The Lokayukta SP Office on Dewan's Road became a hive of activity this morning as B.M. Mallikarjunaswamy and J. Devaraju arrived for questioning regarding the allocation of 14 sites to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi, under the Mysuru Urban Development Authority's (MUDA) controversial 50:50 land allotment scheme.

J. Devaraju is listed as Accused No. 4, while Mallikarjunaswamy has been mentioned as Accused No. 3. This inquiry centres on the exchange of Parvathi's 3.16 acres of land in Kesare.

This marked the first media appearance for both Devaraju and Mallikarjunaswamy at the Lokayukta Office since the controversy erupted and the FIR was filed. Accused No. 2 in the case is Parvathi, while Chief Minister Siddaramaiah is identified as Accused No. 1.

Mallikarjunaswamy J. Devaraju

Devaraju is one of the three sons of Ninga, the original owner of the land in Survey Number 464, which he sold to Mallikarjunaswamy. Subsequently, this land was gifted to Parvathi by Mallikarjunaswamy.

Lokayukta officials have prepared a thorough list of questions to address the allegations. The inquiries cover various facets of the land deals and the individuals involved, underscoring the gravity of the accusations.

The questions encompassed basic personal information about the accused, their residences, connections to one another, as well as details about their assets, including land and houses.

The inquiries included specific queries regarding the location of the land in Kesare, the survey number, how the land came into the accused's names and whether any documents were possessed that prove the land's registration with the Revenue Department.

Questions were raised about when the land was sold, the amount for which it was sold and who re-notified the de-notified land. Additionally, it was asked whether family members were consulted before the sale of the land and what documents were available to prove ownership of the land.

This inquiry signifies a critical moment in the ongoing investigation into alleged irregularities involving MUDA officials. The actions of the Lokayukta reflect the mounting pressure on those implicated as authorities work to uncover the truth behind the questionable land transactions.

Creepers touching power lines electrocute woman

Madhugere villagers in K.R. Pet stage protest against CESC negligence, seek compensation

K.R. Pet, Oct. 10 (KS)- Creepers touching power lines resulted in the electrocution of a farmer's wife, Nethravathi Mohan (47), at Madhugere village in Bookanakere Hobli yesterday. Villagers, alleging negligence on the part of Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC), staged a protest following the incident.

Netravathi

Nethravathi, the wife of Mohan from Madhugere village, reportedly stepped outside her home when she was electrocuted due to creepers coiling around the electric pole and power lines in front of her house, causing electricity to flow through them. Villagers claimed that despite several complaints lodged to remove the creepers, CESC had displayed a negligent attitude, leading to Nethravathi's tragic death.

In the wake of the incident, villagers gathered at the site and protested against CESC officials, blocking the road and demanding stringent action against those responsible for Nethravathi's death. MLA H.T. Manju arrived at the scene to pacify the villagers and assured them of adequate compensation from CESC.

This is not the first incident at this location; villagers noted that three individuals — Satish, Basavegowda and Ravi — had died similarly at the same spot a few months ago. They expressed frustration that CESC had failed to clear the creepers coiling around the power lines, resulting in another preventable loss of life.

The villagers demanded a compensation of Rs. 50 lakh for Nethravathi's family, a job within CESC and immediate action to clear the creepers. Following assurances from CESC officials, the villagers ended their protest. A post-mortem was conducted at MIMS Hospital in Mandya, and a case has been registered at the K.R. Pet Rural Police Station.

ED heat on MUDA: Commissioner burns midnight oil to compile records

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BLU&BCT)- Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) officials are facing mounting pressure as the Enforcement Directorate (ED) intensifies its investigation into the allocation of 14 sites to Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi, under the Mysuru Urban Development Authority's (MUDA) 50:50 land allotment scheme.

The ED has sought essential documents — to be certified by the competent authority — related to a complaint filed against Siddaramaiah and three others, citing violations in the approval of residential sites.

MUDA Commissioner A.N. Raghunandan is heading the effort to gather and submit the required records, with reports indicating that searches for documents extended late into the night. The complaint, lodged by social activist Snehamayi Krishna, has led the ED to issue a formal notice demanding the submission of records to their Bengaluru office.

This ED investigation coincides with ongoing inquiries by the Lokayukta Police, further tightening the scrutiny on MUDA officials. The increasing pressure from both agencies has left officials scrambling to ensure compliance.

Nagamangala PSI suspended over communal clash row

Nagamangala, Oct. 10- A Police Sub-Inspector (PSI) has been suspended following his complaint regarding communal clashes in Nagamangala.

The suspended officer, B.J. Ravi, is attached to the Nagamangala Town Police Station. In his complaint, Ravi stated that the clashes were provoked by those involved in the immersion of Ganesha idols.

Mandya Superintendent of Police (SP) Mallikarjuna Baladandi issued the suspension order, citing dereliction of duty on the part of the SI.

Along with SI Ravi, Constable Ramesh, responsible for collecting secret information, has also been suspended. In total, four Police personnel have faced suspension in this case.

Previously, Deputy Superintendent of Police (Dy.SP) Sumit and Police Inspector Ashok were also suspended, highlighting the ongoing disciplinary actions within the Police department in response to the incident.

Land transfer to Devaraju by MUDA illegal: Complainant

Snehamayi Krishna urges Mysuru Lokayukta SP to probe land deal based on fresh documents

Mysuru, Oct. 10 (BLU&BCT)- The Khata transfer of land in Kesare, Mysuru, to J. Devaraju's name by the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and the subsequent registration of a sale deed in the name of B.M. Mallikarjunaswamy (brother of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi), allegedly facilitated by CM Siddaramaiah, is illegal, according to RTI activist Snehamayi Krishna.

Snehamayi Krishna's complaint led the Mysuru Lokayukta Police to register an FIR against CM Siddaramaiah, Parvathi, Mallikarjunaswamy and Devaraju.

Given the questionable nature of the land deal, Krishna has urged Lokayukta SP T.J. Udesh to interrogate Devaraju, who sold the land to Mallikarjunaswamy, based on the submitted documents. Krishna made this request via WhatsApp, attaching a copy of the Court order and stated that he recently obtained the relevant Court document.

According to the document, Devaraju had signed a settlement deed with Nagrathnamma, the heir of Puttamma, acknowledging that the IHR 8/92-93 order was incorrect and both parties had signed the deed. Based on this, the Court annulled the said order.

However, despite the Court's cancellation of the IHR 8/92-93 order, the land was transferred to Devaraju's name by MUDA using that very order as the basis.

Following this, Devaraju registered a sale deed in Mallikarjunaswamy's name, which is not legitimate, as argued by Snehamayi Krishna in his complaint.

Therefore, Krishna has requested the Lokayukta SP that Devaraju be investigated based on these documents, as stated in his complaint.
